Mrs. Ella S. Newkirk In Critical Condition In Zanesville Hospital as Result of Thrilling Accident—Eight-Year-Old Boy Swims Ashore.

John R. Newkirk and family, of this city, met with a serious accident Sunday, when the entire party was plunged into the Muskingum river. The machine, driven by Newkirk, went over a 40-foot embankment into the river and all had a narrow escape from drowning. Mr. and Mrs. Newkirk, accompanied by the children, John W. and Dorothy, and Mr. Newkirk's mother, Mrs. Ella S. Newkirk, of Salem, N. J., had motored to Zanesville. They were driving on the South River road near the city limits. Sunday at 1 o'clock, when the brakes failed to work on the car, Mr. Newkirk was turning the machine and backing it left the road and plunged over the 40-foot embankment. The machine gained great momentum and its progress was stopped only when it ran into the deep mud in the bed of the river.

The car was practically submerged and the occupants only saved themselves by clinging to the top of the machine. The boy, John, aged 8, swam to the shore, while by clinging to the car Newkirk was able to help the members of the family to keep their heads above water until spectators on the shore came to their help with a boat. ## TERMS INDICATE WHAT GERMAN GOVT. FACES

AUTRO-HUNGARIAN ARMY IS TO BE COMPLETELY DEMOBILIZED—HALF OF ARTILLERY AND SUPPLIES SURRENDERED

FIFTY WAR VESSELS MUST BE TURNED OVER TO THE ALLIED COMMANDER

All Rail and Water Lines Pass Into Hands of Entente Armies—All Prisoners Held By Foe Must Be Released Forthwith

Paris, Nov. 4.—The conferences of the statement of the imperial nations together with their military and naval advisers were continued today.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Terms of armistice under which the land and sea forces of what once was the Austro-Hungarian empire laid down their arms were announced today simultaneously in Washington and the allied capitals. They accomplish complete surrender and open Austrian and Hungarian territory for American and allied operations against Germany.

From this drastic document, it may be stated, may be gleaned an accurate outline of the conditions nearing completion in the supreme war council at Versailles under which Germany may have a cessation of hostilities.

Evacuation of Austrian territory roughly corresponds to the boundary lines claimed by Italy under the Italia Irrendentia, or locality of London program. The right of occupation by allied forces is reserved, local authorities to maintain order under allied supervision.

The terms of the armistice are to be carried out under the direction of Marshal Foch, who will designate material to be turned over and supervise the movement of Austro-Hungarian forces to the rear.

All German troops in Austria-Hungary, Italy, or the Balkans, must be out or interned within 15 days.

Destruction of any property by retreating forces is specifically forbidden. Ships to be surrendered include 15 modern Austro-Hungarian submarines; three battleships, three light cruisers, nine destroyers, 12 torpedo boats, one minelayer, and six Danubian monitors, to be designated by the allies. All other warcraft are to be concentrated and dismantled under allied direction.

Free navigation of all Austrian waters by both the war and commercial fleets of the allies is provided for. The Danube river is to be kept open by the occupation or dismantling of fortresses to be selected by the allied commander. The existing blockade of the allies against Austria remains unchanged. Austrian ships being liable to capture where found except where a commission, to be named later, provides otherwise.

All enemy naval aircraft are to be put out of commission and concentrated under allied control. Austrian naval bases or stations are to be occupied and the arsenal at Pola is specified. (Continued on Page 2, Col 4)

Further east, American forces were in Autreux and their patrols were reported as far north as Brilleux-Sur-Bar.

The center of the line in the village of Fosse was passed early in the day and then in quick succession Barcourt, Nouart, Le Champy-Haut and Le Champy-Bas were occupied by the Americans. The advance of General Pershing's troops has reached the little lake in the center of Helval wood.

On the extreme right the Americans were north of Montigny-Devant-Sassy. From there the line runs to the Meuse river.

COMPERS URGES MEN TO SUPPORT PRES. WILSON

New York, Nov. 4.—Samuel Compers, President of the American Federation of Labor, and Chairman of the American Labor Mission, who arrived at an Atlantic port after a two months' tour of England, France and Italy, issued a statement last night urging the President to "follow the President and the President's advice, at least until the triumphant conclusion of the war."

Mr. Compers said that while the labor mission is not politically partisan, "following neither the Republican nor Democratic party," members of the mission who returned with him concurred in his appeal, feeling that the future of the people to support the President "would be interpreted by the people of our allied countries as a weakening of the people of the United States," and "would put new discouragement and a new lease of life into the Germans and Austrians."

"The spirit among all the people of our allied countries," Mr. Compers explained, "from Presidents, Kings and Cabinets to the great masses, is in support of the policies, purposes and ideals set forth by President Wilson. They venerate him and have absolute confidence in the course he has pursued and the ideals which he has impressed on the consciousness of all, even the soldiers and peoples of Germany and Austria."

"While having a great understanding and appreciation of all that the President has stood for all the way, they regard his last note to Austria as the master stroke. It crushed the spirit and morale of the soldiers and peoples of our two enemy countries."

HEINRICH IS IN METZ HOSPITAL

Former Denison Man, Allied Aviator, Brought Down by Germans, Is Now Prisoner.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, O., Nov. 4.—A scrap of further information as to the Denison aviator, Walter H. Heinrichs, who on September 23, fell with his plane behind the Soissons lines, is to the effect that he is wounded and in a hospital at Metz, a prisoner of the Germans.

Many of the American soldiers who are college men pass through Paris unaware that there is an American University at the Palais Royale hotel, where their welcome awaits them, also, that this union has been established in London and in Rome. However, President Chamberlain has heard that the following Denison men have registered at the union in Paris during the past three months: Lieutenant T. D. Allen, '08; Lieutenant L. H. Chaille, '18; Corporal C. W. Hall, Lieutenant J. F. Haskins, Private A. B. Howell, '18; Lieutenant R. E. Ladd, '14; Private J. L. Mahoney, Lieutenant J. M. Martin, '18; Lieutenant T. M. Norton, '07; Lieutenant L. H. Shadle, '16; Private H. J. Scott, '11; Lieutenant J. K. Wedell, '18; Private C. G. Willets, '17; Private H. W. Woodrow, '18.

The Book Exchange, located in Marshall hall, which was established 15 years ago and for the past 10 years has been managed by students, approved by the faculty, and run as a private enterprise, has been purchased by the college. During the period of the war it is not feasible for the work to be continued by the students.

The old town is witnessing many changes and experiencing many new sensations during these autumn days. Not the least of which is the absolute ban on public gatherings of all kinds for five weeks. The majority of the residents have acquiesced in this ruling with good grace and will continue to back the health officer. However, it is said that the middle of this week will see the end of the quarantine.

Another change is inaugurated today when the Delta Theta Pi and Phi Gamma Delta lodges are taken over by the college authorities for the women of Shepards college—Omega Pi Epsilon, in East Elm street, for a barracks, housing 50 men of the fourth platoon, and Sigma house, in Broadway West, for officers' headquarters. Phi Delta Theta lodge, on Prospect hill, is already in use as a Denison hospital.

Readers of The Advocate who are watching the success of Denison men in the war, will be interested in the following statement which appeared a few days ago in the Cleveland Plain Dealer: "After being rejected seven times for service in the regular army, J. Kennard Wedell, in France since September, 1917, as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, has been commissioned second lieutenant." This brief statement can be expanded. Lieutenant Wedell, while in Denison, was a member of the class of '18, and associate editor of The Denisonian. He was also a member of Omega Pi Epsilon fraternity. After five months of service in the Y. M. C. A., Wedell again tried to enlist and was accepted as private. He spent three months with his regiment on the firing line, stopping the great German spring drive. In May he was appointed to attend the Samur artillery school. Of more than 300 who attended the school Wedell ranked third in the final examinations—Charles C. Traft, Jr., being first with 18,720 points out of a possible 20,000, and C. E. Hughes, second.

Granville people have been walking in the blackness of darkness for a week—either groping about the streets even in the morning or waiting for the searchlight from a passing automobile to illuminate the scene. Something is wrong with a dynamic it seems, which will be repaired as speedily as possible.

During the absence of Dr. Kirtley Mather, in active military service, the department of going will be under the care of Dr. Maurice G. Mehl, who has been associate professor of geology at the University of Wisconsin and later head of the department of geology in the University of Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox, '14, of Chicago, announce the birth of a daughter on Saturday morning, November 2. Mrs. Cox was formerly Miss Constance Cheney of Shepards college, Kappa Phi sorority. Mr. Cox was a Denison man, leader of the Glee club and other college activities.

Miss McKibben came up from Camp Sherman, Saturday, to spend the week-end at his home, returning at noon today.

Charles Belt, formerly postoffice assistant, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Belt, who was inducted into military service in August, has been made corporal. He is in the motor and transport service at Valparaiso, Ind.

Miss Bertha Frank had as her houseguest, Miss Helen Baggis of Winchester, Ind., who was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Beck, Centerville, last night. Miss Frank, who is a student at the University of Chicago, was in New Paris where the ban has been lifted from the public schools.

Professor Theodore Johnson, who 10 days ago submitted to a painful operation on his injured arm, Saturday, Dr. Bevan at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, has returned home accompanied by Mrs. Johnson. A heavy cast on the injured member impedes freedom of motion, but the professor is in fine health and is assured that in time he will be "all right" again.

Following are the terms of the armistice proposed upon Austria, which will go into effect at 3 o'clock today:

All territory thus evacuated (shall be occupied by the forces) of the allies of the United States of America.

"5.—Complete evacuation of all German troops within 15 days not only from the Italian and Balkan fronts, but from all Austro-Hungarian territory.

"6.—The administration of the evacuated territories of Austria-Hungary will be entrusted to the local authorities under the control of the allied and associated powers.

"7.—The immediate repatriation without restriction of all allied prisoners of war and internal subjects and of civil populations evacuated from their homes, pending the final settlement by the commander-in-chief of the forces of the allied powers on the various fronts. Sick and wounded who cannot be repatriated from evacuated territory will be cared for by Austria-Hungary personnel and will be left on the spot with the medical material required."

Naval Conditions.

There was never a time when the sacrifices and the help of women were more appreciated than at the present time. Women should learn war-nursing and nursing at home. There is no better way than to study the new edition of the "Common Sense Medical Adviser"—with chapters on First Aid, Bandaging, Anatomy, Hygiene, care of the Sick, Diseases of Women, Mother and Babe, the Marriage Relations—to be had at some drug-stores or send 50c. to Publisher, 654 Washington Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

If a woman suffers from weak back, nervousness or dizziness—if pains afflict her, the best tonic and corrective is one made up of native herbs and made without alcohol, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. It is the prescription of Dr. Pierce, used by him in active practice many years and now sold by almost every druggist in the land, in liquid or in tablets. Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c. for trial pkg. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are also best for liver and bowel trouble.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"During expectancy I was sick for three or four months, my strength left me and I became weak and nervous and just felt miserable. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and my strength returned very rapidly and I felt very well the remainder of the time. My baby was a very strong, healthy child and always has been. I would especially recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to the expectant mother."

SENATOR MILLER ANSWERS AMERICAN TRIBUNE ROORBACK

I thought I carefully covered everything in Saturday's Tribune but the editor referred to in his "roor-back" and those who commented upon my statement, agreed with me, for I not only replied in reference "to those bills," but covered my whole record in the Senate when I said that "I was unwaveringly true to my convictions and record on the temperance question." This could not be true if I had "smothered bills" as suggested. Yet in the face of this, the editor said I

"shrewdly avoided saying anything about those bills," and then he resorted to another eleven-hour "roor-back," saying I have been sending out circulars over the country urging that my friends vote the straight Democratic ticket, etc. I wonder if I can get the "Fodder down low enough in the rack for the editor to reach?" I will try.

His statement that I smothered bills given to me by the "Dry Federation committee," for me to introduce or to see that they were introduced, etc., is wholly false and untrue.

2. His statement that I had been sending out circulars or letters to friends over the country urging them to vote a straight Democratic ticket, or for that matter for anybody except, selfishly for myself, is basely false as well as absurd.

I did not expect to make this additional statement at all, and I am not disposed to take this matter too seriously, but I want a fair minded public to know what the editor of the Tribune has reported to and persisted in. How long will it take this community to rise to better things when the editor of one of our leading papers raises such an ethical standard?

If anybody insists that my record in the Senate is not brilliant, I challenge him to prove that it is not honorable. My campaign has been clean, and I have pulled off no "tricks" and made no "deals."

If you deem me worthy of a second term, I shall certainly appreciate your vote tomorrow.

J. HENRY MILLER.
P. S.—Since writing this statement the report comes to me that I am renting my old office room for "wet" headquarters. Such a report is now being circulated. The room in question is owned by Columbus parties who have the right to rent it to whom they please.

KIRKERSVILLE NOTES.

The little recess in school matters has been taken advantage of by the administration and the school authorities to complete plans for the more efficient systematization of course of study and plant equipment. Files and furniture have been added to the office arrangement to make it possible to place ones hand on any child's record with a second's notice. The system of the arrangement and the indexing the 1500 books in the school library has been effected so that it will be possible to check in a few minutes any or all books read by each pupil. The only books of fiction appearing on the shelves is classic with a few additions of the best modern writers.

Files were installed to receive the agriculture bulletins from the state and federal government so indexed that they are available by subjects instantly. Other changes in the work program and arrangement of apparatus have been made.

Dr. Ray DeShorn was out of the house for the first time in the last two weeks.

THESE KAMERAD CALLS.

Hardly had the message been flashed around the world that America had met the greatest financial demand in world history than Germany began insistently to renew the "Kamerad calls"—her peace overtures.

The moment it became assured that the loan would be met Germany wirelessly broadcast her initial proposal. Germany gave it to the world before it reached President Wilson, played to the galleries; and in very poor form. Germany put up her bloody hands once more in a pretended willingness to negotiate a peace upon the lines the President had laid down months before but kept right on devastating the country over which her beaten armies were retreating, persisted in the program of frightfulness which has been hers from the moment she first crossed the Belgian lines, kept on playing the Hun game.

America must not permit themselves to be deceived by these German advances. They must not take them too seriously. Germany is playing a double game as usual, playing for time, primarily. But more than all, she is seeking to impress the world at large with her willingness to quit; make it appear that further continuation of the war is on the head of the allies, which has been her dominating plan for the outset.

Germany is just as deceitful, just as tricky, just as treacherous as when she first began planning for "der tag," just as big a wolf in sheep's clothing, just as willing to knife the world from behind.

America has voiced her determination to wipe out Prussianism. She must "stand pat." This second army must go forward as planned. It must be financed according to schedule. There must be no halting, no hesitation, no delay. Whether it means months or years, whether it means one more Liberty Loan or half a dozen, whether it means much or little of sacrifice for all of us for the burden of world peace is upon America more than all the world.

Wilson vs. Wilhelm. Tomorrow will be election day. Think it over. The President asked the people for a vote of confidence. Doesn't he deserve it?

Don't weaken the band of the boys "over there" by weakening the band of your president over here. Think he deserves you mark your ballot tomorrow.

SUPPORT PRESIDENT TOMORROW.

When the big German drive began last March Premier Lloyd George said: "It is a race between Wilson and Hindenburg. Who is winning?"

The Kaiser's armies are still fighting. Are you behind your President in the most critical moment of the world's history?

Bulgaria, Turkey and now Austria-Hungary have crumbled. Germany comes next but the Kaiser's surrender has not as yet come. Germany still fights.

Do not vote tomorrow to embarrass the President. Hold up his hands! Back him up. Vote to sustain him. Europe has its eyes upon tomorrow's American election.

Trust your president and distrust all forces that would weaken and discredit him. Woodrow Wilson asks a vote of confidence tomorrow. Does he not deserve it? Will you support him with your ballot tomorrow?

MENTAL DEFECTIVES.

Some almost pathetic cases are reported of men who are keenly anxious to go as soldiers, but are ruled out for some mental defect. They may make a fairly good appearance, they feel wholly adequate for the work, are full of patriotic ardor. But the bit of a screw loose is a dangerous factor. When it is discovered the exemption authorities have to send them home for the good of all concerned.

Battle brings a severe mental strain, to which a man of normal temper and balanced mind will stand up and adjust himself. But those of highly nervous temperament or with tendencies toward mental weakness would be likely to go to pieces.

As a result of the care taken in the selection of men, it is to be expected that the cases of insanity among our soldiers will be rather few, and less than has been the case in most wars. It is a splendidly chosen army of normal men, who will stand a lot of hard drubbing.

It is said there are fewer inmates than usual in the feeble minded institutions now. Many of them have been able to get to work. Labor is so scarce that many employers will take on a man who is lacking in some directions, yet able to do some routine task. They could never be accepted as soldiers, yet might pass muster in a time of stress in a factory.

Most mentally defective people could be trained to be of some service. The great trouble is that they are not taken early enough in life. If they had had careful instruction from patient teachers in early childhood, many of them could have come out fairly well. It is a pathetic sight to see men and women of sound and healthy bodies, capable of doing hard work, yet unable because they never had the advantage of some educational institutions adapted to their needs.

Re-elect Governor James M. Cox and a Democrat congress to back up President Wilson. "Ohio is one of the sturdiest supporters of national policy" says President Wilson while Theodore Roosevelt had this to say of the chief executor of the Buckeye state: Governor Cox has made a great war governor.

Will the bells ring Wednesday in Berlin or Washington? Refusal to give President Wilson a vote of confidence tomorrow will be construed as a repudiation in Germany.

The people who can't spare time from their work to remain at home a day and ward off the influenza, are usually the same ones who spend three weeks in bed.

The foot ball players aren't quite so much heroes as usual, and it is reported that they sometimes even design to speak to the president of the college.

The girls are urged to wear colors in war times, but they need not feel they must dig any deeper into the rough box.

WILLIS VS. COX.

(By Prof. W. H. Johnson.)
The voters of Ohio will say through the ballot tomorrow whether they wish to continue Governor Cox in office for the next two years, or go back to former Governor Willis, who held the office from 1915-1917.

The ordinary questions of party politics do not count in this campaign. The Governor of Ohio will have nothing to do with the settlement of the tariff question, or any other question on which Democratic and Republican national platforms have differed in past years. The prohibition amendments do not constitute a party question. Democratic papers all over the state, including the strongest of them all, the Plain Dealer, are earnestly supporting the dry amendment, and its chance of success lies altogether in the fact that its support comes from both the parties and not from one. Its one serious danger is the attempt to appropriate it as a political issue of one party.

There are really just two important problems to consider in electing a Governor for Ohio tomorrow. One is that of efficient business administration, and the other is the relation of the election to the war. In business efficiency Governor Willis's former administration was generally recognized as conspicuously weak. This was not his fault as a Republican, but his fault as a man. The present business efficiency of his administration is a question of magnificent business efficiency, but unfortunately Mr. Willis has abundantly proved that he is not one of them. As Governor he showed no vision to grasp and settle any of the great problems of the state, but instead of trying to do so he spent his time on what seemed to him the more attractive problems of office juggling. There were some objections to the first administration of Governor Cox, but the objection of petty inefficiency was not one of them. After two years of a wholly unsatisfactory alternative, the people of Ohio called him back again, and the business efficiency displayed in his administration during the present term ranks among the very highest attained by any governor, of either party, during the present generation. And in the particular duties which have devolved upon him because of the war, his record has not been surpassed by that of any governor in the United States. He has spared neither time nor strength nor personal expense out of his own pocket to do everything in his power for the encouragement, comfort, and welfare of our boys in the army. For the war policy of the country he has uttered only words of the warmest support, not of carping criticism. If a national aversion to war made him slow to believe that our participation in the war was necessary, it is also true that never at any time did he follow the lead of men like Frank B. Willis in advocating measures which would have given effective and possibly decisive aid to Germany. Governor Willis again and again, in public speeches, in telegrams to Eastern papers, and in private letters, advocated the denial to the Allies of the right to buy war supplies in the American market, and has never to this day indicated that he was wrong in that denial. If his attitude had been followed, the Allies would have been so weakened that the amount of American blood necessary to win a final victory would probably have been increased ten fold. And to this day, Mr. Willis has uttered no words of unqualified approval of any of the great messages which have come from President Wilson, no word of manly appreciation of the many noteworthy achievements of the administration in the work of bringing the war to a successful conclusion and getting our boys back home again.

I have voted for both of these two men in the past, and have carefully studied the administrations of both. On the basis of the observations I do not hesitate for a moment to vote for the return of Governor Cox, for he will give a business administration of a quality which Mr. Willis has demonstrated that he could not give. He will be able to try, and his attitude toward the carrying on of the war in which so many hundreds of our Ohio boys are engaged is that of helpful sympathy at every point, while that of Willis and his long political career has been one of carping criticism, sure to blaze out into open hostility if approved by success at the polls.

HINDENBURG.

(Springfield Union.)
According to George Renwick, the Amsterdam correspondent of the New York Times, it is no secret now that the March offensive was a complete failure. On the basis of the observations I do not hesitate for a moment to vote for the return of Governor Cox, for he will give a business administration of a quality which Mr. Willis has demonstrated that he could not give. He will be able to try, and his attitude toward the carrying on of the war in which so many hundreds of our Ohio boys are engaged is that of helpful sympathy at every point, while that of Willis and his long political career has been one of carping criticism, sure to blaze out into open hostility if approved by success at the polls.

WHY COLONEL IS PEEVED.

(Philadelphia Record.)
Mr. Roosevelt is the man who injected partisan politics into the present situation. He has been barking at the heels of President Wilson, the Commander-in-Chief of our Army and Navy, for months past.

Mr. Roosevelt has spent most of his time for months in trying to detract from the work accomplished by our boys, and his boys, too, and in denouncing the president for not entering the war at an earlier date.

A great many people are wondering why Mr. Roosevelt started to denounce President Wilson on a new line several weeks ago.

The present trouble with Mr. Roosevelt is not that he is in the war, but that he is not in the war.

WILSON THE ISSUE

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
With the biggest campaign fund in years at their disposal, leaders of the Republican party are bending every effort to capture the sixty-sixth congress and discredit the war leadership of Woodrow Wilson which would indicate to the world that the American people are no longer a unit behind this nation's efforts to crush Prussianism.

Such is the motive behind the efforts of men like Roosevelt, Smoot, Penrose, Lodge and Poindexter. These relics of a discredited partisan regime are stacking everything on the outcome of today's election. No price is deemed too high if they can wrest the leadership from the man whom the world looks upon as the foremost spokesman of the entente powers.

Expression of confidence by the German Reichstag in the new Chancellor, Prince Maximilian, shows that Berlin diplomacy can practice its duplicity with better effect at home than in Allied capitals.—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

WM. A. FLEMING HAS MADE A GOOD RECORD IN RECORDER'S OFFICE

Wm. A. Fleming, present county recorder, is asking the voters of Licking county to return him for a second term. Mr. Fleming during his tenure of office has made a splendid painstaking official and promises if re-elected to exercise the same care and fidelity in the functions of the office.

Mr. Voter, when you step into the booth tomorrow, consider that it is no more than right to cast your ballot for county recorder for the candidate whose past administration entitles him to his second term. He will appreciate your vote and your influence and your confidence in him will not be misplaced.

Vote for Wm. A. Fleming and you are voting for a capable official, an honest man and a friend of all of the people.

Spirit of the Press

Our Big Guns.

It would be very interesting to know what is the range of the big American guns reported as shelling the German lines of communication in France, and also whether these formidable engines of war are those to which Mr. Vauclain of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, has more than once referred as surpassing in performance, the great German super-guns that bombarded Paris. Much of the equipment for these monsters was made here in Philadelphia. If they have anything like the range claimed for them, it is no wonder that Germany is anxious to make peace before they can be brought within firing distance of the Rhine Valley.—Philadelphia Record.

Bring Them Home.

The War Department has just made known a ruling that will be gratifying to our sense of American sentiment; it is that the bodies of our slain soldiers will be brought home. That these young men have died for their nation and for the great truth is in itself a compensation. But in our intimate, neighborly habit of thought there is another compensation in preserving the spirit and memory of them at home in the little churchyard. Memorial day will have an added flavor of stillness and wholesomeness when we go to their graves and breathe a prayer in the presence of the mortal that is the token of immortality.—Ohio State Journal.

THE LAST SNORT

KAISER'S TALK TO HADES.

The Kaiser called the devil up on the telephone one day. The girl at central listened to all they had to say.

"Hello," she heard the Kaiser's voice. "Is Old Man Satan home? Just tell him it is Kaiser Bill. That wants him on the phone."

The devil said, "Hello," to Bill. And Bill said "How are you? I'm running here a hell on earth. So tell me what to do."

"What can I do?" the devil asked. "My dear old Kaiser Bill, if there's a thing that I can do to help, I surely will."

The Kaiser said, "Now listen. And I will try to tell you the way that I am running on earth a modern hell."

I've saved for this for many years. And I've started out to kill. And it will be a modern job. You leave to Kaiser Bill.

My army went through Belgium. Shot women and children down. We tore up all her country. And blew up all her towns.

My Zepps dropped bombs on cities. Killing both the old and young. And those the Zeppelins didn't get were taken cut and hung.

I started out for Paris. With the aid of poison gas. The Belgians, darn them, stopped us. And would not let us pass.

My submarines are devils. Why, you should see them fight. They go sneaking through the sea. And will sink a ship on sight.

I was running things to suit me. 'Till a year or so ago. When a man called Woodrow Wilson Wrote to me to go more slow.

He said to me, "Dear Wilhelm. We don't want to make you sore. So tell your little U-Boats To sink our ships no more."

"We have told you for the last time. So, Bill, it's up to you. And if you do not stop it. You will have to fight us too."

"I did not listen to him. And he's coming after me With a million Yankee soldiers From their homes across the sea."

"Now that's why I called you, Satan. For I want advice from you. I knew that you would tell me Just what I should better do."

"My dear old Kaiser Wilhelm. There's not much for me to tell. For the Yanks will make it hotter Than I can for you in Hell."

I've been a mean old devil. But not half so mean as you. And the minute that you get here I will give my job to you.

I'll be ready for your coming. And I'll keep the fires all bright. And I'll have your room all ready When the Yanks begin to fight.

For the khaki boys will get you. I have nothing more to tell. Hang up the phone and get your hat And hurry down to Hell."

—W. E. Curry.

The Ohio War Board Says Today

The demand for skilled labor for war work is growing by leaps and bounds. Ten thousand workers from more than 30 trades are needed NOW.

In another week the demand probably will be swelled by thousands. These workers must be withdrawn from non-war and less essential work. "Business as Usual" must give way to "Business for War Only." Employers and employees, get into war work and help to end the war.

DESCRIBES WORK IN QUIET SECTOR

Newark Soldier Stationed in French Mountains Compares Camp With Valley Forge.

Mrs. Minnie Cruise has received an interesting letter from her son, Guy Cruise, Co. E, 54th U. S. Infantry, now in France.

He describes the fighting in the mountains where he is located and tells how the food is taken up into the mountains in carts or on pack mules. The snow and the battle scenes painted in mind picture for him like he remembered seeing in his school history of "Washington at Valley Forge," only they are very well clothed. Parts of his letter written Sept. 12th follow:

"We are now close to the firing line in a quiet sector in the mountains where there is heavy pine timber. We live in rudely made huts which the French probably made a few years ago. Some of them leak badly, but most of them have stoves and at present we have a fire in our stove. As there is so much rain it is hard to get dry wood, and it is mighty hard to keep ourselves dry, as we are out on the ground most all the time now. For two nights I stood guard all night in an active sector near the front. I did not see any of the enemy but there were lots of firing and shelling and flashes of light all night. This is all in the rear of the first line trenches, where snipers might have crawled through, and the creeping up on our camps. There have been a few captures, but not lately.

"We are beginning to experience some of the real war life, but as it is now to most of us, we take it up like the rest of the training. Most of the fighting is done at night, when it's so dark that one can hardly see his hand before him. Our snipers patrol and attack, while our men guard against any attack that the enemy might make. While we do not think that there are many Germans on this sector yet they might fool us, and we're not going to be caught asleep.

"The shacks are over a mile back, but once in a while we are shelled and trees are cut down and shacks shattered, yet we have our dugouts to get into though there has not been much shelling here in the last few days. We waited for the dawn one night when the shrapnel got to singing too close.

"We are not ready to take this sector and are keeping rather quiet.

"After several days we are relieved for a few days and are sent several miles, but not out of range of Fritz's guns, for every once in a while a shell whistles over our shack—maybe several hundred feet high, some closer—while other shacks over further get shelled. With all of this there are not many hurt, but lots half frightened to death.

"Well, mother, I have seen enough already to believe lots of the stories written about the experiences of this war, but we have about all the stories to comfort us that it is possible, and so far have not suffered much. Along the first of September we had one week of rainy weather while we were near the front, and that made it very disagreeable, but now the weather is real nice. All through these mountains it is cool. We are at present lodging in bunks where we have straw, and after getting in here late last night and tired I surely did sleep like a log.

"Sept. 21st, I did not get this letter finished the other day. I will now say something more, we are again having some rain and this morning there was a heavy frost. It looks like winter. At times the sights here remind me of the picture in our history of Valley Forge except that we are well dressed. Yesterday there was some snow sprinkled around.

"A few evenings ago our artillery opened upon the German red hot and we have not been shelled since. I hope we have their guns out of commission.

"The last few days I have been working around the regimental supply store. We get three large truck loads of food in every day. This must be distributed to 15 different companies. Some is taken out in the mountains in carts and others carried on pack mules.

"All of the provisions are sent from the State. We get bread in about four or five peat sacks, and we keep it for weeks and doesn't seem to get hard, and it is real good bread. We get beef in a couple of times a week, other meat is bacon and canned beef. The bacon all comes in a barrel, and then there is dried or evaporated corn, beef, potatoes, turnips and carrots, canned tomatoes, corn, condensed milk, spices and seasoning, flour, sugar, coffee, dried peaches, prunes and other such stuff.

"It is all prepared to consume the least amount of space. The bread is baked over here, so you see we are still living. We find that the French soldiers are well acquainted with their work, and are good fighters and seem to be real gentlemen. There are some scattered through here. Well the day is closing up and I begin to look cold. I am feeling very good, but don't look the best at present as I need a shave, as I have been too busy to find time as a few of us are on special detail now every day.

It All Depends.

"How late shall you remain at your summer cottage this year?" "Ask the cook."—Boston Transcript.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look. Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or, huskiness, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advt.

OFFERS OFFICER FORTUNE TO FIND "PLOTTERS"

In police court today five drunks were fined $5 and the costs each for imbibing too much Saturday night and Sunday. Bradley's ambulance was called to the Auditorium Saturday evening to remove a supposedly sick man to the hospital but it turned out to be Babe Brunner and he paid a fine of $5 and costs for his ride as the ambulance took him to the city prison instead of the hospital.

A citizen of the South End was found in his night clothing in South Second street near the old canal bed Saturday night and was removed to the city prison for safe keeping. He had hallucinations that some one was endeavoring to dynamite his home and offered Turney Eddie Furman a reward of $40,000 to run down the criminal. Eddie promised to do so and is now planning what he will do with the money.

WARNS FARMERS TO ARRANGE FOR LABOR

"Arrange for your next year's help now. If you don't there may be none left for you." That was the warning issued to farmers of Ohio today by Thomas D. Phillips, Farm Help Service of the United States Employment Service.

Forecasting a serious shortage of farm labor next season, due largely to the operation of the draft, Phillips, cooperating with county farm agents, is endeavoring to urge farmers to the necessity of registering their expected labor needs. "It's going to be a case of the early bird getting the worm," said Phillips.

Farmers should register their needs with County Agricultural Agent or the U. S. Employment office 36 S. 2nd street immediately.

NERV-WORTH DID "SO MUCH GOOD IN SO MANY WAYS"

Mrs. Rosie Tweddell Tells Her Druggist the Interesting Story.

"So much good in so many ways," is a very graphic description of Nerv-Worth benefits, so all-around and comprehensive are they. Now mark what Mrs. Tweddell said to Akron's Nerv-Worth druggists.

"My sister, Mrs. Minnie McDoney, advised me to take Nerv-Worth, as it had so greatly benefited her. The death of our mother caused a complete nervous breakdown. To this was added stomach trouble and indigestion. Battered badly and was very weak. Have suffered for years with catarrh. Could not sleep soundly. Tossed about the bed all night. Poor appetite and afraid to eat."

"One bottle of Nerv-Worth has changed everything and I am no more troubled with the above named ailments. Nerv-Worth did me so much good in so many ways and I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from nervousness."

AMERICANS CAPTURE 4000 HUNS SUNDAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Sunday, Nov. 3.—(7 p. m.)—More than 4,000 prisoners were captured by the Americans in this sector yesterday. The number of guns and other booty is steadily growing. The right flank of the American line is now at Hilles, on the heights overlooking the Meuse river.

It has not been a day of fighting as much as of pursuit. The Germans are not retreating in great disorder and their withdrawal cannot be called a rout, but it is certain that the general staff and the field officers have lost control to a certain extent.

All parts of the line were active during the night. The left wing continued its advance with little interruption even after darkness had fallen. The Americans reached Boul-Aux-Bois at 4 o'clock this morning. Their patrols were at the heels of the retreating enemy who was heard leaving the northern end of the town by wagon and who had escaped by the time the Americans had made their way through the town in the gloom.

There was some opposition, especially artillery fire and rear guard fighting at Baricourt and Noua, but it was quickly swept away. After cleaning up Tilly last night the Americans took Hill 268 and a little later occupied Les Fontenelles farm.

The village of Le Champy-Haute was taken early this morning. The advance of five miles northward from Bayonville. The Americans did not stop there but pressed on. One division which on Saturday captured 79 officers and 2,170 men, 60 machine guns and 122 cannons was reported today to have largely increased its booty.

The troops on the right, like those on the left and center, also continued to move forward, although less rapidly than the others. The heights of Montigny, four miles north of Clercy-Petit were reached at noon. When the Americans occupied the height it was seen that the Germans had evacuated the region immediately to the north.

From the left flank to the right there was evidence that the German officers are trying to hold their men to their task but reports from different sources agree that difficulties have arisen which the Germans have found impossible to overcome.

From the Meuse from north of Removille where the roads are choked with retreating Germans, to north of Stenay, on the east bank of the river, where the railway yards are filled with train cars leaving for the rear, the German line is falling back. (Evans.)

Removille to Stenay is about eight and a half miles. The artillery fire from the hills behind the German lines seems to indicate the reluctance of those in command to yield to the evident defeat of the men in the line to withdraw.

Equal activity is displayed behind the American lines, but it is of opposite character. Far to the rear the roads are filled, not only with slowly moving convoys, but with trucks filled with supplies being rushed forward to support those in some cases, are keeping up the fast pace set by the retreating Germans.

The American losses so far have been astonishingly light, compared with the size of the operation. The Germans have been fighting by the enemy but of a half hearted sort, except in a few cases where for brief intervals strong stands were made by little garrisons left behind.

One of these was at Baricourt, which was occupied just after 4 o'clock this morning, the southern edge of the village having been taken Saturday night. The distance between the Americans and the Germans was less than three hundred yards. Ordered to advance the Americans plunged down the streets with fixed bayonets, shooting as they went. The Germans stood their ground only for a few moments. It was a bloody interval. Only a few of the Germans escaped.

Scores of small fights occurred in the woods and ravines between enemy machine gun crews and the advancing Americans.

Throughout the day the American artillery heavily bombed the German lines along the entire front.

NEW BLOOD NEEDED

After the grippe, influenza or other serious illness, the body needs help to regain the health and strength sacrificed by the disease. The blood first of all must be purified and revitalized. For this purpose physicians know of no more efficient body builder than Iron, Nux Vomica, Gentian, Capsicum and Zinc Phosphate in some form.

In many preparations, however, the Iron causes constipation, but in Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets, which contains all of these tonics, this is overcome by the addition of Aloin.

The system, therefore gets all the benefit of the iron and other body builders without any unpleasant after effect. Health and strength quickly returns and pure, healthy blood is soon circulating through the body.

Each dose means more vim, vitality, and strength. Watch yourself before taking and watch the result.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE FINDS A REMEDY FOR INFLUENZA

Miss Inez Burns, giving her services to the War Department, gladly tells her story of how she was attacked, and overcame Spanish Influenza.

606 H. St., S. W.
Washington, D. C.

To whom it may concern:

While working in the War Department in Washington, D. C., I contracted Spanish Influenza which was spreading rapidly throughout the Government offices. Having a bottle of Hull's Superlative at hand I at once started in to take it regularly. Although I was quite sick for a couple days it helped me out so that I did not need to be alarmed at my condition. Within a week's time I was again feeling fine, which I owe to this medicine.

INEZ BURNS.

DIRECTIONS.
Go to bed at once, cover up real warm, take four doses of Hull's Superlative Compound, 20 drops at a dose every two hours. You will go in to a sweat. Remain covered until perfectly dry. You will notice that aches, pains, and fever have disappeared. Follow by taking 8 to 10 drops three times a day until perfectly well. Do not expose yourself or get chilled until you are thoroughly well, or a relapse is liable to take place, which may be much worse than the first attack. If it does not act on the bowels in 12 hours take a strong physic.

Hull's Superlative is a root and bark remedy, rich in Peruvian Bark, fever breaker, Golden Seal the greatest known vegetable antiseptic and other ingredients—good as those mentioned. Hundreds testify to great good received. Be sure and keep it in the house. LaGrippe comes almost at once without warning. Then is when you need Hull's Superlative.

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM INFLUENZA

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine," Will Aid a Run-Down System to Combat Disease.

A person in a weak, impoverished state of health is in grave danger of contracting influenza, or for that matter any other disease, and if a disease is contracted is in poor condition to withstand it.

A person in normal health is not nearly so susceptible to contract any ailment, and has a good chance to throw it off if attacked. It is the part of wisdom to watch for danger signals if you are weak and run-down.

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is a splendid preparation for all weak, unhealthy persons. It is an ideal tonic, creates an appetite, helps in the assimilation of food, and imparts tone and vigor to the system.

When you catch the influenza consult your doctor immediately, but if you are weak and need a tonic far excellence to help build you up, get a bottle of Tanlac at once. It cannot fail to help you.

Tanlac may be obtained in Newark at Erman's Arcade Drug store. Tanlac may also be procured at the Evans Pharmacy (Warden Hotel block, east side of square, Newark), and the Hebron Drug store, Hebron, O.—(Adv.) 10-31-nov4

In Ohio cities last winter big brewery trucks hauled beer to saloons while men, women and children trudged through the deep snow with coal. There were not enough wagons and trucks to deliver NECESSITIES to people in frozen-up homes during that fuel and transportation famine. But the business of supplying SALOONS with their HARMFUL product went on "AS USUAL."

Scenes like that pictured here made many a man promise himself to vote dry the next chance. It is just one of the hundreds of good reasons for abolishing the wasteful and remorseless Liquor Traffic in Ohio forever.
